Hello, I am Delilah Deel. I am a professional and ethical Massage Therapist licensed in the State of Texas. I believe that there is a broad range of health benefits from massage therapy that may include stress reduction, relief from chronic pain conditions and healing from injuries. I am an empathetic and reliable practitioner who has a genuine concern for your well-being. It is my goal to provide my clients with outstanding service as I help them achieve a better quality of life. I invite you to experience my therapeutic touch. I will make every effort to ensure that you will leave relaxed and refreshed.
